Ask what you can do for your country and not what your country can do for you. Inform. Ignite. Initiate. As our motto says, we strive to inform the youth about the socio-political issues, we ignite the spirit of bringing a change and we initiate the process of bringing the change.

Rushab Gandhi

CEO- Zero Hour Foundation

It is believed that developing countries with large youth population could see tremendous growth, provided they invest in young people's education, health and protect and guarantee their rights. We can undoubtedly say that today's young are tomorrow's innovators, creators, builders and leaders.

MESSAGE

The initiative to hold the 4th session of Chhatra Sansad – India's Carnival of Democracy on the theme - "Vision India 2024" is a thoughtful one.

Democracy celebrates the collective aspirations and will of the people. Democratic traditions have always nourished and nurtured the roots of our society and nation. Guided by the principles of 'Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat' and 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, Sabka Vishwas', our Government is making efforts to make growth inclusive and equitable for all sections of the society.

Youth is the greatest asset of any nation. It is the verve and spirit of our youth that holds key to nurture democratic principles and traditions in the years to come. The large-scale participation of youth will enrich and strengthen democratic institutions such as Chhatra Sansad and at the same time, provide the youngsters an opportunity to learn more about the functioning of Parliamentary institutions.

130 Crore countrymen have resolved together to shape a New India by 2022 when India celebrates the 75th year of its independence. Through the 4th session of Chhatra Sansad, the youth must connect itself to deliberate upon ways and means to achieve this goal.

I am sure that the Chhatra Sansad will help instil democratic virtues to optimise democratic governance. May the 4th Session of Chhatra Sansad in Vadodara be a resounding success and be replicated in other parts of the country.
